Design inspired by Nature, Art and Collaboration

Robyn Scott Interiors is a prominent, award-winning interior design firm for vacation and primary homes. Inspired by the natural majesty of the mountains and the meditative currents of the rivers in Aspen, Colorado where she works, lives and plays, Robyn Scott collaborates with clients to understand their desires and create their ideal home. Robyn's modern aesthetic weaves landscape and art into the experience of living in all aspects of a home and its interior.

Since opening her Aspen-based design firm in 2001, Scott has garnered acclaim for her unique vision and holistic approach to interior design.

Robyn believes that design elicits emotion and it's her role to bring a deeper meaning and connection to the client and how they relate to their spaces. Backed by a team of leading contractors, vendors and suppliers, Scott delivers spaces that exude connections to the environment, sophistication, and elevated living.

Robyn has an interior design degree from Colorado State University and studied design in Florence, Italy. The combination of her travels to Europe and throughout the Western United States enables Robyn to create sophisticated, yet comfortable, interiors, which maintain a relationship to the outdoors through organic elements. She loves skiing, golf, tennis, hiking, biking, and spending time with her family – husband Craig, son Jackson and daughter Kate.

Robyn Scott Interiors has been recognized by many of the country's top design publications including Architectural Digest, Robb Report, Luxe Colorado, Mountain Living's "Top Architects and Designers," Circle of Excellence 2020 for Colorado Homes & Lifestyles, Best of Houzz, and first-place awards in residential design by the American Society of Interior Designers.
